RESTE DU MONDE

QUOTES & SPECIAL MENTIONS

Nominated as Best African Act Songlines (embargoed until 9th April, 2021)

"Star Feminine Band are so much more than a captivating curio. They're a game changer" Songlines ★★★★★

"If four-time Grammy winner Angelique Kidjo is Benin's greatest star to date, Star Feminine Band are its bright future. This is no lazy contextualisation: these teenagers and their unstoppable band leader are taking up Kidjo's baton as beacons of female empowerment, musical excellence and inextinguishable joy" Guardian

"This is manufactured pop at its most joyous...utterly glorious" Uncut 7/10

"Joyful, raw, unpolished and complete with wonky solos, this impossibly addictive album is the sound young women clearly having the time of their lives." ★★★★★RnR

"It literally couldn't be any more incredible than it already is" Lauren Laverne (BBC 6 Music)

"Wonderfully uplifting" Morning Star ★★★★★

"FAB" Cerys Matthews (BBC 6 Music)

"It's hard to imagine many settings where seeing them rocking out wouldn't be met with total joy" Quietus

"A heartwarming back story doesn't guarantee great music. The girls themselves have done that, familiarising themselves from scratch with their instruments, and melding into a exhilarating ensemble" Metro

"this music is a joyful testament to why girls deserve access to instruments, equipment and support" Afropop

"Their music is full of resilience and joy, a catchy universal language that shines a light and keeps a beat for a troubled world" Spectrum Culture

"This is brilliant. What an inspiring story AND, to boot, great music" Lopa Kothari (BBC Radio 3)

"Playing the AMAZING Star Feminine Band...you have to check this lot out" Matt Wilkinson (Beats 1)

"The surging Montealla transcends itself" Wire Magazine

"a joyous bubbling recipe, influenced by Oumou Sangaré and, more explicitly, Angélique Kidjo, but more spontaneously thrown together." ArtsDesk
